The Gregory sweet corn was planted June 20th and Aug. 27th, or 69 days from the time of planting, it was fit for the table.

PORT POINT.

A very prosperous season has been enjoyed at the Fort Point House during the present summer. The large hotel has been turned away for want of accommodations. Mr. Wm. D. Loring, the proprietor, now talks of enlarging the improvements before another season and an extension is proposed on the west end by adding 102 feet. On the first floor will be a dining hall large enough to seat 350 guests and above will be 60 sleeping rooms. It is now proposed to put a portion of the adjacent land in the market for lots and it is anticipated a large number of handsome summer cottages will have been erected before next season.

CATTLE IMPORTATIONS.

A letter from Mr. Hall C. Burleigh, now in England written from Bayham Court, seat of Mr. Thomas Duckman, M. P., Aug. 11th, just at hand, informs the Home Farm that he was to ship about 50 head of Herefords from Liverpool, on Saturday last, Aug. 10th. When good voyage they should be on our shore by the middle of this week; and as quarantine has not yet been established at Portland, they are being taken to J. B. Bodwell's Pine Grove farm, Hallowell, immediately after their arrival. Mr. Burleigh says: "Our lot of 50 head of Herefords numbers about 40 head, some of which have been to no mean purpose in the great Highland show." These will not be shipped until later, and Mr. Burleigh will not sail for home before the first of October.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

A MAGNIFICENT MEETING.

Old Norumbega Thronged.

HUNDREDS UNABLE TO GET INTO THE HALL.

Eloquent Speeches by Hon. James C. Blaine and Gen. Gibson.

UNBOUNDED ENTHUSIASM.

The Republicans of Bangor held their annual rally last evening, and it proved one of the grandest political meetings ever held in our city. The announcement that Ex-Secretary Blaine would address our citizens upon the issue of the canvass drew to Norumbega Hall an audience of magnificent proportions. The meeting was an auspicious inauguration of the campaign in Bangor.

At a very early hour the people began to assemble at the place of gathering. There were many carriages rounding the corners, and the audience embraced some who had driven long distances to attend. Shortly after seven o'clock the hall began to assume a crowded aspect, and at least half an hour before the hour announced for the beginning of the meeting nearly every seat on the floor, in the galleries and on the stage was occupied.
